

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

FEDERAL CERTIFICATION

Objective: To present the Planning Committee with a copy of the SMTC's Federal Certification Review which was conducted in November 2017.

Considerations: The Federal Highway and Federal Transit Administrations are required to review, evaluate, and certify the metropolitan transportation planning process of the SMTC at least every four years. The certification is necessary to ensure the planning process is being conducted in accordance with applicable federal regulations.

Staff will provide a brief presentation at the meeting. FHWA representatives will make a presentation at the June 12 Policy Committee meeting.

Staff Recommendations: This is presented as an informational item.
